JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Five (5) months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $120, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Clifford Eugene Henry, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 3 and 4 of the 4-Count Indictment the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 5 months. This term consists of 5 months on Count 1, and 4 months on each of Counts 3 and 4, to be served concurrently.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on Count 1, and one year on each of Counts 3 and 4, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.

USA vs. 2. Steven Robert AguirreDocket No.: CR 14-55-GW

4. The defendant shall reside at and participate in an approved residential drug treatment and counseling program approved by the United States Probation Office, which includes urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, until discharged by Program Director.
5. Upon discharge from the residential drug treatment program, the defendant shall transition to housing approved by the United States Probation Office with input from the Program Director.
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
8. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's alcohol and drug dependency and psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
9. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
10. When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, the defendant shall perform 10 hours of community service per week for six months as directed by the Probation Officer;
11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on September 16, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Court dismisses Count 2 and the unredacted underlying counts of the Indictment as stated on the record. Defendant is advised of his rights to appeal.

Restitution hearing is set for October 20, 2014 at 8:00 a.m.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
